STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER AMENDING THE COURT'S
JANUARY 17, 2008, ORDER REGARDING
DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION TO RICHARD
BLANCHARD

STIPULATION

WHEREAS Alpha & Omega Semiconductor, Inc., Alpha & Omega Semiconductor, Ltd. (collectively "AOS") and Fairchild Semiconductor Corporation ("Fairchild") are parties to the above-captioned matters;

WHEREAS on January 17, 2008, the Court issued an Order (Docket No. 131) (the "Blanchard Disclosure Order") pursuant to the parties' stipulation, adopting the terms of an agreement between the parties regarding the terms on which Dr. Blanchard could have access to information that AOS designates as "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" or "Confidential" pursuant to the Protective Order entered in this case ("AOS confidential information");

WHEREAS the terms of the Blanchard Disclosure Order provide in part:

To allow Dr. Blanchard to pursue intellectual property based on ideas he has developed prior to reviewing AOS's confidential information, Dr. Blanchard will not be given access to any AOS confidential information until February 11, 2008, during which time Dr. Blanchard may file applications for patents, which he may continue to pursue after February 11, 2008 so long as he does not add any new matter to the applications on file as of February 11, 2008;

(Blanchard Disclosure Order at 3.)

WHEREAS, Fairchild informed AOS that, due to filing errors, Dr. Blanchard was unable to properly file patent applications in the field of low-voltage trench power MOSFET technology by February 11, 2008 (the deadline set forth in the Blanchard Disclosure Order), and that he needed a short extension of the February 11, 2008, deadline.

WHEREAS, Dr. Blanchard has not yet been given access to any AOS confidential information;

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED by and between the parties, through their undersigned counsel of record, that the deadline by which Dr. Blanchard is permitted to file patent applications in the field low-voltage trench power MOSFET technology is extended from February 11, 2008, to February 19, 2008, and that he may continue to pursue patents based on those applications after February 19, 2008, so long as he does not add any new matter to the applications on file as of

1 February 19, 2008. The parties further stipulate that Dr. Blanchard will not be given access to
2 AOS confidential information until February 20, 2008.

3 IT IS SO AGREED AND STIPULATED.
